

Iron County Register

IRONTON, MO. - JULY 20, 1909.

E. D. AKE, EDITOR.

VOLUME XLIII. NUMBER 7.

THE Sutton inquiry is developing the vicious rottenness that may pertain to "an officer and a gentleman."

In the Federal Courts desire to boost Socialism they have gone about it rightly. One or two more Warren convictions will cause millions of Socialists to rise up where there were but thousands before.

FOR a Republic, our Courts, both State and National, assume too much "inherency"—an attribute taken from old-country tribunals noted in times past for subservience to the King and as his chief aid in oppression and persecution. Away with "inherency" or any other assumption not founded on the fundamental law!

HON. THOMAS ESSEX.

I was surprised and grieved when I read in Tuesday's St. Louis Times of last week the following:

"The funeral of Thomas Essex, State politician and veteran railroad, who was killed by a fall on the stone steps of the residence of his brother-in-law, Dr. Benjamin M. Hynes, 2005 Victor street, will be Thursday at 10 A. M. from that address. The former State Senator was seized Monday with dizziness, it is supposed, as he was about to mount the steps. In falling his head struck, causing a fracture of the skull and death in a half hour. Essex, 72, was a native of St. Louis. A Democrat, he entered actively into State politics during the reconstruction period and was president pro tem of the Missouri State Senate in 1875 and 1874. Later he became Land Commissioner for the Iron Mountain Railroad, a position he held 20 years. One child and three sisters survive. The daughter is Mrs. E. B. Lease, whose husband has the chair of Latin in the College of New York. She left New York City immediately on being informed of the death of her father. The sisters, all of whom reside in St. Louis, are Mrs. Isaac Hill, Miss Bell Essex and Mrs. F. W. Browning."

Mr. Essex was for several years a resident of Ironton, and was one of the founders of the REGISTER. In 1897 he and W. S. Winfield, then Register of the U. S. Land office here, purchased the material of the defunct Arcadia Valley Review—a paper that had had a short existence of about six months—and established the REGISTER, placing the writer as foreman. At the end of twelve months I bought Mr. Essex's half-interest, he retiring to devote himself exclusively to his legal practice. I therefore knew the deceased well and intimately, socially and in business. He was of even temperament, just in thought and action, with a heart filled with love for his fellowmen. His memory needs no panegyric at my hand, but this tribute to him is called forth by the respect and love I have always borne for him. His passing is but the severing of another of the few remaining ties binding me to the past. "Thine little wonder that one dwells, 'in the still hours,' with tender recollection, upon men and things gone from him forever, but that does not justify his protruding it upon a busy public intent upon matters of to-day and to-morrow. At best, all I can say to the bereaved kindred is, 'I sorrow with you;' to the departed, 'Hail and farewell!'"

Annapolis News.

It is raining this morning. Four solicitors for enlarging picture houses here recently. Anything for the money these days.

The prospect for lead is good. The London Realty Company has spent over $300 prospecting. One of the owners, Mr. Nichols, was here from St. Louis Saturday and Sunday, inspecting the mines, and, it is supposed, laying plans for the future, as Prof. Brant is going away to be absent three weeks or more. It is thought no more mining will be done until he returns.

There were several people from hereabouts went to the Arcadia Heights Sunday. Among them were: Ed Funk, Ben Funk and John Dunn. They returned that night, and report a good time.

Ed Thurman expects to ship a car of cattle to St. Louis this evening, if he succeeds in getting his stock together and in the car.

The Holiness people are still preaching at this place. Bro. Cook from near Lesterville gave them a sermon Saturday night, and Sunday night. Brother Allison was at the opening and closing of the services. Bro. Middleton attended the meeting until they said something they could not prove by the Bible, and he "sawed off" his part and went to learn something better. And the writer thinks Bro. Middleton is just right in his belief and holds up for all denominations of churches and good lodges and insurance companies, while the Holiness denounces them, saying without sanctification you can not enter the kingdom of heaven.

T. P. Fitz loaded a car of hub timber at Des Arc and a car at Annapolis Saturday. He will load another car here Wednesday, if he can get the car placed. T. P. is a hustler.

John McFall is on the sick list. A Reese has been home the past three days with his family. He is running a saw mill at Garwood, in Reynolds county.

Gus Funk will finish loading out his ties this week. He has loaded out eleven or twelve cars the past week—over 30,000 ties.

Some of the boys got too much "bust head" whiskey Saturday night and Sunday, but were quiet with it.

Mrs. Eveline Brower is at Desloge under medical treatment. It is hoped that she will soon return, well and hearty. BULLETIN.

E. L. Barnhouse desires to inform the public that he now has on hand a complete supply of all the school books used in Iron county. You can get any book you want at Barnhouse's.

(Action to Enforce Lien for Taxes.)

Now at this day comes the plaintiff, J. N. Lewis, Collector of the Revenue of Iron county, Missouri, and files his petition and affidavit, setting forth, among other things, that the defendant, Francis Cellini, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and that he cannot be served with summons in said state. Plaintiff states that the said Francis Cellini, Francis Cellini, has not been heard of for many years; that plaintiff is not informed whether he be living or dead; that if he be dead his heirs, or if he died leaving a will, his devisees are interested in the subject matter of this petition; that the names of such heirs or devisees, or both, cannot be inserted hereinto because they are unknown to plaintiff; that the said Francis Cellini was the record owner of the fee simple title to the land described herein, but plaintiff has no information except as herein stated of the nature of the interest and estate in said land owned by said Francis Cellini, and, therefore, is unable to particularly describe the same, and that in the event of the death of the said Francis Cellini, his said heirs and devisees have, by descent or devise, succeeded to the said interest and estate of the said Francis Cellini, from whom their interest in the property herein described is derived; it is, therefore, ordered by the clerk of the circuit court of Iron county, Missouri, in vacation, that publication be made, notifying said defendants that an action has been commenced against them in the Circuit Court of said county, the object and general nature of which is to enforce the lien of the State of Missouri on the following real estate, situate in Iron county, Missouri, belonging to the said defendants for back taxes for the years 1906 and 1907 to wit:
